1. INTRODUCTION AND BACKGROUND

Emcure Pharmaceuticals Limited is a leading pharmaceutical Company in India. The Company has been socially responsible Company since inception, and has been contributing for the CSR activities to benefit the socially & economically disadvantaged communities even much before the enactment of mandatory Rules under the Companies Act, 2013. It is for the first time we have captioned the social and environment activities under the umbrella of Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR policy).

The Company believes that while continuing to generate wealth for its shareholders, it is not only important to create value for its other stakeholders, but also to share it equitably with them. We are surrounded by society and environment and we insist on the principle that we should obey the duty to protect and nourish it. The prime duty of any corporate is to give back to the society and environment whatever it derives from. Our Board of Directors, our Management and all of our employees subscribe to the philosophy of compassionate care.

CSR is about making sure that organisations have a positive impact on the communities around them. We have a proud history of respecting the environment and supporting our local community. CSR is about being community minded, being responsible, and taking positive actions. This includes being responsible towards employees, customers, the environment, partners and the society at large. By adopting socially and environmentally responsible behaviour, businesses can make a significant contribution to boosting wealth creation and employment, fostering social justice and protecting the environment.

This strategy confirms our commitment to being responsible and working with our communities to share the dividends.

2. Our CSR Vision

Emcure CSR actively is to contribute to the social and economic development of the communities in which we operate and to nourish the natural environment. In doing so, build a better, sustainable way of life for the society and environment as a whole.

3. Objectives of the Policy

The objectives of this policy are to-

- Demonstrate commitment to the common good through responsible business practices and good governance
- Set high standards of quality in the delivery of services in the social sector by creating robust processes and replicable models
- Engender a sense of empathy and equity among employees of Emcure to motivate them to give back to the society

4. Applicability

1. Emcure (hereby referred to as the Company) CSR policy has been developed in consonance to Section 135 of the Companies Act 2013 (referred to as the Act in this policy) on CSR and in accordance with the CSR rules (hereby referred to as the Rules) notified by the Ministry of Corporate Affairs, Government of India in 2014.
2. The Policy shall apply to all CSR projects/programmes undertaken by the Company in India as per Schedule VII as may be modified from time to time and respective circulars, notifications issued by the Ministry.

5. CSR Budget

CSR Committee will recommend project wise annual budgeted expenditure to the Board for its consideration and approval.

6. Our CSR Strategy

For Emcure, CSR means doing everything we can to be a good corporate citizen. The CSR strategy confirms our commitment to acting responsibly and sustainably whilst delivering high quality services. By including existing organisational objectives, we recognise that we are not starting from nothing. We have already been managing our social, environmental and economic impacts in different ways. This is, however, the first time that all of these objectives have been unified with new objectives under the CSR umbrella.

Our aim is to maintain strong ethics, manage our environmental impacts and support the local community and we will develop these aims by focusing on Economy, People, Communities and Environment.
