e) Restrictions on communication or procurement of UPSI:

No Insider shall

- i. deal in the Securities of the Company listed on any Stock Exchange either on his own behalf or on behalf of any other person on the basis of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information or when the trading window is closed;

- ii. directly or indirectly communicate, provide, or allow access to any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to any person or procure from or cause the communication by any insider of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, relating to the Company or Securities of the Company that are listed on any Stock Exchange except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal or contractual obligations.
- iii. procure from or cause the communication by any Insider of UPSI, relating to the Company or its Securities, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

The Company shall not deal in the securities of another company or associate of that other company while in the possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

f) Preservation of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” and its sharing for Legitimate purposes

i. Need-to-Know

- Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed or communicated only to those persons who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or apprehension of misuse of the information.
- All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the respective Head of the Department (“HoD”) and such HoD shall report the same to the Compliance Officer of the Company.
- In case of slippage/ leakage of UPSI Designated Persons shall inform the Compliance Officer and shall take responsible measures to put a stop on further spreading of such UPSI.

ii. Unpublished Price Sensitive Information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would –

- Entail an obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of the informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interest of the Company;
- or
- Not attract the obligations to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of the informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interest of the Company and the information that constitutes Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

For this, Board of Directors may require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

iii. Limited access to confidential information

.Files containing Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password. Without prejudice to the above, Designated Persons shall follow such guidelines for maintenance of electronic records and systems as may be prescribed by the Compliance Officer from time to time after consultations with the person in charge of the IT teams.

iv. Legitimate purpose guidelines

- For the purpose of this Code “legitimate purpose” shall include sharing of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in the ordinary course of business and on “Need-to-Know” basis as mentioned above by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of the SEBI PIT Regulations.

In any case the Managing Director & CEO in consultation with the Board of Directors shall have sole and absolute discretion to determine the legitimate purpose for which the information can be shared.

- Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “insider” for purposes of this Code and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such UPSI.
- Sharing of any information under this clause should not be carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibition under SEBI PIT Regulations.

v. Structured Digital Database

A structured digital database (‘SDD’) shall be maintained by the Compliance Officer inter-alia containing the nature of UPSI and the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared along with the PAN or any other valid identifier authorized by the law where PAN is not available.

Such databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

The Board shall ensure that such database is preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the SEBI regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the SDD shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

If, in the performance of duties, it becomes necessary for the Designated Person or any other Employee to disclose any UPSI to any person outside the Company, e.g., Advisors, Auditors, Consultants, Merchant Bankers, etc., the Designated Person and other Employee shall ensure that the concerned Advisor, Auditor, Consultant, Merchant Banker, etc., executes an Agreement in the prescribed format (Form C) with the Company covering non-disclosure and confidentiality of UPSI and also refraining from trading while in possession of UPSI.

g) Prevention of misuse of “Price Sensitive Information”

All Directors, Key Managerial Personnel, Officers and Designated Persons of the Company shall be subject to trading restrictions as enumerated below:

i. Trading window

The Company shall specify a trading period, to be called “Trading Window”, for trading in the securities of the Company.

- When the trading window is closed, the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in the Company’s securities.
- The Trading Window shall be, inter-alia, closed at the time of:
 - i. financial results of the Company (quarterly, half yearly and annual);
 - ii. Intended declaration of dividends (both interim and final);
 - iii. change in capital structure;
 - iv. issue of securities or buy-back of securities;
 - v. any major expansion plans or execution of new projects or introduction of new products;
 - vi. amalgamation, mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, takeovers, de-listings, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions;
 - vii. disposal of the whole or substantial part of the undertaking;
 - viii. any significant changes in policies, plans in relation to the operation of the Company;
 - ix. changes in Key Managerial Personnel.
 - x. such other information as may be specific by the Compliance Officer for this purpose.
- The time for commencement of closing of Trading Window shall be decided by the Compliance Officer. The trading window for the purpose of declaration of financial results shall be closed from the end of every quarter and shall open 48 hours after the declaration of Financial Results to the stock exchanges on which securities are listed.
- The Trading Window shall open 48 hours after the UPSI is made generally available. Trading Window Period may run for such time in addition to the above period, as may be deemed fit by the Compliance Officer
- All Designated Persons or their immediate relatives shall conduct all their dealings in the securities of the Company only when Trading Window is open and shall not trade in the Company’s securities during the periods when the Trading Window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

ii. Pre-clearance of Trades

All Designated Persons and their immediate relatives, who intend to deal in the securities of the Company above the threshold limit of the value of Rs. 10 lakhs (market value) or such other value as may be prescribed under the Regulations, should obtain pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer in the following manner:

- a. An application may be made in the prescribed form in this regard to the Compliance Officer indicating the estimated number of securities that the Designated Persons and their immediate relatives intend to deal in, the details as to the depository with which he/she has a security account, the details as to the securities in such depository mode and such other details as may be required by any rule made by the Company in this regard.
- b. An undertaking confirming that they do not possess any UPSI, shall be executed in favour of the Company in the prescribed form by all Designated Persons and their immediate relatives and submitted along with the application to the Compliance Officer.
- c. All Designated Persons and their immediate relatives shall execute their order in respect of securities of the Company within 7 Trading Days after the approval of pre-clearance is given. If the order is not executed within 7 Trading Days after the approval is given, the approval would lapse and the concerned Designated Person or their immediate relatives shall pre-clear the transaction again.

In case the transaction is not undertaken, the concerned Designated Person and their immediate relatives shall intimate the Company to that effect.

- d. Designated Persons or their immediate relatives who buy or sell any number of securities of the Company shall not enter into any opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of securities during the next six months following the prior transaction. Designated Persons or their immediate relatives shall not take positions in derivative transactions in the securities of the Company at any time. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by the Securities and Exchange Board of India under the Act.

However, no Designated Person shall be entitled to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such Designated Person is in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information even if the Trading Window is not closed and hence he shall not be allowed to trade.

No approval for trading (i.e. Buy/Sell/Pledge) in the securities of the Company shall be granted when the trading window is closed except in the following scenarios, subject to necessary pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer:

- a) the transaction is an off- market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that such unpublished price sensitive information was not obtained under sub-regulation (3) of Regulation 3 of SEBI PIT Regulations. Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the company within two working days. The Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange on which the securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

- b) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of the Regulation 3 of the SEBI PIT Regulations and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;

Provided the transaction mentioned in sub-clauses (a) and (b) above, should not pertain to such unpublished price sensitive information which was obtained in a manner provided under Regulation 3(3) of the SEBI PIT Regulations.

- c) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction;
- d) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations;
- e) the trades were pursuant to a Trading Plan formulated in accordance with this Code
- f) In case of creation/release of pledge of shares for a bonafide reason as maybe deemed appropriate by the Compliance Officer
- g) transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Board such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such other mechanism as may be specified by SEBI from time to time

In case if the Compliance Officer wishes to trade in the Securities of the Company, the pre-clearance should be obtained from the Managing Director & CEO.

iii. Trading Plan

An Insider, who intends to trade, shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

Trading Plan shall:

- not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the Insider earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from the public disclosure of the plan;
- not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:
 - (i) either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
 - (ii) nature of the trade;
 - (iii) either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
 - (iv) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
 - a) for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
 - b) for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price.
- not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

The Compliance Officer shall consider and review the Trading Plan made as above to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the regulations and shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan. Upon approval of the Trading Plan, the Compliance Officer shall notify the plan to the Stock Exchanges on which the securities of the Company are listed, on the day of approval.

The Compliance Officer shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan or to deviate from it except due to permanent incapacity or bankruptcy or operation of law.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

In case of subscription in the primary market (further public offers), Designated Persons or their immediate relatives shall hold their investments in securities for a minimum period of 30 days. The holding period would commence when the securities are allotted.

In case the sale of securities is necessitated by personal emergency, the holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing his/her reasons in this regard, provided such waiver does not violate the SEBI PIT Regulations and this Code. However, no such sale is permitted when Trading Window is closed.

In case of non-implementation (full/partial) of Trading Plan due to either reasons as mentioned under sub-regulation (4) of Regulation 5 of SEBI PIT Regulations or failure of execution of trade due to inadequate liquidity in the scrip, the following procedure shall be adopted:

- (i) The Insider shall intimate non-implementation (full/partial) of Trading Plan to the Compliance Officer within two trading days of end of tenure of the trading Plan with reasons thereof and supporting documents, if any;
- (ii) Upon receipt of information from the Insider, the Compliance Officer, shall place such information along with his recommendation to accept or reject the submissions of the Insider, before the Audit Committee in the immediate next meeting. The Audit Committee shall decide whether such non-implementation (full/partial) was bona fide or not;
- (iii) The decision of the Audit Committee shall be notified by the Compliance Officer on the same day to the Stock Exchanges on which the securities are listed
- (iv) In case the Audit Committee does not accept the submissions made by the insider, then the Compliance Officer shall take action as per this Code of Conduct.

iv. Disclosure requirements

Initial Disclosure

Every person, on appointment as a Key Managerial Personnel or a Director or upon becoming a Promoter or member of a Promoter group, shall disclose his holding (along with holding of immediate relatives) of securities of the Company as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter or member of Promoter group, to the Company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter or member of Promoter group in the prescribed Form A.
